

Become a 2016 Emerging Leader Today!

Launched in 2015, Open Buffalo's Emerging Leaders program is a distinctive social justice curriculum aimed at building a stronger Buffalo by preparing new leaders in our city. Emerging Leaders are given the tools and support to make positive change by participating in cutting edge trainings, building organizing, policy, and research skills, and networking with like-minded movers and shakers.

The Emerging Leaders program is highly competitive. Not everyone who applies will be accepted. If you make it to the next round, you will receive a follow-up email from the Open Buffalo leadership development committee and will be asked to an in person interview. All participants accepted into the program receive a full scholarship.

A Community Movement for Social and Economic Justice.
