

Toward a Sustainable Buffalo Lecture Series

A COMMUNITY AGENDA TO ADVANCE EQUITY FOR ALL

Taking Action on Economic, Environmental, and Climate Sustainability

The “Toward a Sustainable Buffalo” Lecture Series is a collaborative effort by Buffalo State College and Open Buffalo. The two session series will feature community leaders, politicians, and other experts who will provide information about environmental, economic, social, and political sustainability issues. The lecture series will offer an interdisciplinary forum for discussing and addressing these issues.
